PROFILE

Full Stack Developer with 2 years of professional experience developing and maintaining production web applications using Next.js, React, TypeScript, Node.js and Strapi. Strong experience in booking and hospitality systems, third-party API integrations, frontend/backend integration and production support, including reservation platforms, availability flows, payment services, analytics/tracking and technical SEO. Currently pursuing a BSc in Physics at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki while expanding my software engineering skills in C#, .NET and ASP.NET Core. Previous 10+ years of commercial management experience provide strong communication, problem-solving, ownership and business awareness.

EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Developer

Nelios Ltd. | Athens, Greece | 2024 – 2026

- Developed and maintained production web applications using Next.js, React, TypeScript and JavaScript.
- Worked extensively with booking, reservation and hospitality systems, integrating platforms such as Ventrata, WebHotelier and Resco for availability, reservations and customer-facing booking flows.
- Developed and maintained custom Node.js backend services and business logic, integrating internal systems with Strapi, databases and third-party APIs.
- Built integrations between Next.js frontends, backend services, Strapi and external platforms, supporting data exchange and application workflows across multiple systems.
- Implemented integrations for payments, analytics, tracking, technical SEO, translation and security, including GA4, Google Tag Manager, DeepL API and reCAPTCHA.
- Worked with Strapi, WordPress and PHP, while diagnosing and resolving production issues across frontend, backend, CMS, booking systems and third-party integrations.
